Young Band Person of the Year 2018

Nomination Information

Nominations Close: Monday 4 May 2018

Only one nomination will be accepted from each Band Committee. The Committee nominating its candidate must ensure that the candidate and the band of which the candidate is a member are registered with the Band Association of NSW for 2018. Late nominations will not be accepted.

The nominated person must be 25 years of age or younger as at 31 December, 2018 and must have been a registered member of the his/her Band for at least one (1) calendar year in accordance with the Band Association of New South Wales rules.

A selection panel of three will conduct an interview with each nominee in order to select the "Young Band Person of the Year". The winner of this Branch Award will be automatically nominated for the:

Band Association of New South Wales "Young Band Person of the Year" Award.

THE AWARD

All nominees will receive a Certificate.

The winner of the Award will receive:

- Medallion suitably inscribed.
- Perpetual Trophy with name inscribed, retained for 1 year.
- Sponsorship of $200 cash.

CRITERIA

A Band Committee should nominate a person who would satisfy some or all of the following criteria:

has an attendance record of at least 80% for his/her Band's rehearsals and engagements over the past twelve months, but preferably over the past two years;

- has shown significant improvement in playing ability in the past twelve months;
- has played in at least one Solo Contest (Regional or State), with a significant result(s);
- has shown consistent and positive interest at Band rehearsals and performances;
- has made a positive contribution to his/her band's organisation and/or administration by undertaking tasks additional to just being a playing member;
- has provided assistance to other bands and/or has undertaken volunteer duties at community banding events; and/or
- is a person who would be an excellent representative for his/her Band and for the band movement in their Community.

Nominations can be either posted to the above post office box or emailed to the above email address using the attached nomination form.
